PRESIDENT AND CEO

Chris Morris was named President and CEO of the Edmonton Elks on Oct. 30, 2024, succeeding interim President and CEO Rick LeLacheur. A former offensive lineman with the team, Morris played 14 seasons with the Edmonton Eskimos (now Elks), from 1992 to 2005, earning three Grey Cup championships (1993, 2003, 2005) and induction into the EE Wall of Honour in 2008.

Before returning to the Elks, Morris spent 12 years as head coach of the University of Alberta Golden Bears football team. Under his leadership, the program achieved significant success, including four Canada West playoff appearances and a berth in the 2023 Hardy Cup. Morris also revitalized the team's alumni and donor relations, coaching 19 players who were later drafted into the CFL, including current Elks Mark Korte and David Beard.

In addition to his football career, Morris has a background in education. While playing for the Eskimos, he became a full-time teacher with Edmonton Public Schools in 1997 and later served as principal at Spruce Avenue Junior High starting in 2009.
As President and CEO of the Elks, Morris has stated his commitment to restoring the team's championship culture and organizational stability. He has emphasized the importance of continuity in the roster and staff, and aims to rebuild the franchise's connection with the community.

Morris's appointment marks a return to the Elks for a leader deeply rooted in the team's history and community, bringing a wealth of experience from both the field and educational leadership.

WALL OF HONOUR

TOM WILKINSON | 1982

A three-time CFL All-Star through 15 seasons, "Wilkie" never missed a game in his 10 years (1972-1981). He won five Grey Cups with the EE and played in eight Grey Cup games. In 1974, he was named the CFL's Outstanding Player. Wilkinson was the first inductee to the EE Wall of Honour. In 1981, he was inducted to the Canadian Football Hall of Fame. Following his playing career, Wilkinson coached the University of Alberta Golden Bears football program.

JOHNNY BRIGHT | 1983

This powerful fullback gained 10,909 yards in 13 CFL seasons with Calgary and Edmonton. He was top rusher in the West four times, a Western All-Star six times and the Most Outstanding Player in the CFL in 1959. Bright rushed for 1,200 or more yards in five straight seasons and ran for 71 touchdowns. He helped lead the Green and Gold to three consecutive Grey Cup victories in 1954, 1955 and 1956.

NORMIE KWONG | 1983

"The China Clipper" played 13 seasons with Calgary and Edmonton. Twice voted the CFL's Outstanding Canadian in 1955 and 1956, he finished his glorious career with 9,022 rushing yards and 78 touchdowns. He was the West Division's leading rusher three times and earned four Western All-Star nominations. DAVID BOONE AWARD

The David Boone Award was created in 2005 in memory of the legendary Elks defensive lineman, three-time West Division All-Star and CFL All-Star who spent countless hours helping the less fortunate. The honour is awarded annually to the Elks' player who best displays the characteristics on the field and in the community that Boone stood for.

CHEER TEAM

The Edmonton Elks Cheer Team is a combined acrobatic stunt, and technical dance team. The team consists of 41 athletes that dedicate hundreds of hours of training to provide exceptional entertainment for Elks fans.

The Edmonton Cheer Team was the first professional cheer team to introduce male athletes in 1986. By 1996, the male contingent on the cheer team had grown to 16 members strong and remains a dominant force on the team today. These male athletes were instrumental in the introduction of acrobatic stunting to the cheer team in 1990. Now, more than 30 years later, the Elks Cheer Team continues to be a powerhouse in acrobatic stunting, which complements their exceptional dance team and their crowd-leading abilities. They are proud to have paved the way for male athletes and stunt teams in professional cheer. Outside of practices and games, they spend countless hours in the community performing at events, volunteering with various charitable organizations, and working with youth in the community. Every year they culminate the season with a team trip to the Grey Cup, performing at numerous functions, representing the Edmonton Elks Football Club and the City of Edmonton. Year after year, they live up to their moniker "The Pride of the CFL" and to continue to provide first class entertainment for fans across North America. These athletes are proud of their success and love what they do.
